

All of these images can be found in the Main Museum

Look Closely.....What do you see?

First Row: John Singleton Copley, Young Lady with Bird and Dog, 1767; India, Parvati, Chola Dynasty, about 860-1279; Edgar Degas, Study for Little Dancer Aged Fourteen, bronze cast 1919-21. Second Row: Auguste Rodin, The Thinker, about 1880; Gilbert Stuart and Jane Stuart, Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, 1818-28; Jean-Honoré Fragonard, Blind Man's Buff, about 1750-52. Third Row: Egyptian, Coffin of Ta-Mit, Dynasty 26, 664-525 BCE; Henri Edmond Cross, At the Fair, 1896; Jean MacLane, Florence Scott Libbey, about 1933.

All of these images can be found in the Main Museum

| D | ra | W | i | + |
|---|----|---|---|---|
| | | | | |

| Draw it |
|--|
| A Portrait is a work of art that features a person. Choose a portrait from the images and draw it here: |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| Do It |
| Have one person in your group choose a work of art from the images that features a figure posing in an interesting way. Take turns selecting different poses to imitate until everyone has had a turn. |
| Write it |
| Choose one of these images that you really like and describe it: |
| |